Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham, and son, Robert, who have been visiting at Joseph Tomlinson's, returned to their home in Philadelphia on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wildman attended the funeral of Mrs. Alfred Frost, of Germantown, on Friday. Mrs. Margaret Frost, nee Gallagher, frequently visited this village and had many friends here, who were surprised to hear of her death after a short illness which was not known here until after death came. Mrs. Frost leaves a husband and one son.

NEWPORTVILLE.
Charles H. Slemmer has returned home from his visit at Atlantic City.
Ira Withers and Frank Jackson have returned home after spending a week at Kansas.
Mrs. Sophia Broomer and daughter are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Broomer.
Mrs. Lizzie Jackson has returned home after spending a few days with her brother, E. G. Betz.
The Fallington baseball team defeated the Newportville team on Saturday at Fallington by the score of 19 to 17.
Visitors about town last week were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vandergift, Miss Lizzie Markley, of Bristol; Walter Jackson, of Tacony; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, of Bristol; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard King, of Philadelphia; Miss Abbie Collins, of Philadelphia; Raymond Betz, of Crofton; Miss Lillian T. Mitchell, of Philadelphia; and Mrs. Nicholas Brummer, of Philadelphia.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Special Excursions to Pan-American Exposition.
The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run special excursions to Buffalo on account of the Pan-American Exposition, from Philadelphia and adjoining territory, on July 3, 9, 15, 23, 31, August 6, 13, 20, 27, September 3, 10, 17, and 24. Round-trip tickets, good going only on train leaving Philadelphia at 8:30 A. M., Harrisburg 11:35 A. M., Sunbury 12:45 P. M., Williamsport 1:50 P. M., Lock Haven 3:20 P. M., and all local times connected therewith, and good to return on regular trains within seven days, including day of excursion, will be sold at rate of $9.00 from Philadelphia, $8.40 from Harrisburg, $8.00 from Trenton, $8.40 from Allentown, $9.00 from Lancaster, $9.00 from Reading, $10.00 from Winchester, and proportionate rates from other points. These tickets will not be good in Pullman parlor or sleeping cars in either direction, and for specific time and rates, consult local ticket agents.

The Pennsylvania Railroad 1901 Summer Excursion Route Book.
On June 1 the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company published the 1901 edition of the Summer Excursion Route Book. This work is designed to provide the public with descriptive notes of the principal summer resorts of Eastern America, with the best routes for reaching them, and the rates of fare. It contains all the principal resorts and over seven hundred different routes or combinations of routes. The book has been compiled with the greatest care, and altogether is the most complete and comprehensive handbook of Summer travel ever offered to the public.
The cover is handsome and striking, printed in colors, and the book contains several maps, presenting the exact routes over which tickets are sold. The book is profusely illustrated with fine half-tone views of scenery at the various resorts and along the lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad.
This very interesting book may be procured at any Pennsylvania Railroad ticket office at the nominal price of ten cents, or, upon application to the general office, Broad Street Station, by mail for twenty cents.

It Saved My Baby.
"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhea and was unable to nurse him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Deak, of Williams, Ore. "It was happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by all druggists.

P. T. Thomas, Sumterville, Ala., "I was suffering from dyspepsia when I commenced taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I took several bottles and can digest anything." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only preparation containing all the natural digestive fluids. It gives you stomachic rest, restoring their natural condition. J. Edward Wright, Central Pharmacy, 303 Mill street.

Don't be satisfied with temporary relief from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure permanently and completely removes this complaint. It relieves permanently because it allows the tired stomach perfect rest. Dieting won't rest the stomach. Nature resolves supplies from the food we eat. The sensible way to help the stomach is to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digests what you eat and can't help but do you good. J. Edward Wright, Central Pharmacy, 303 Mill street.

There were locked up in the county jail on Thursday last seven tramps charged with illegal riding and trespassing. The men were discharged, one upon payment of a fine of $5 and costs, another through the benevolence of a friend who paid the fine and cost, and the third upon payment of a fine of $5 and costs. It is not known to the public whether the tramps have been released or not. The tramps have been released from the jail and are now in the county jail. The tramps have been released from the jail and are now in the county jail. The tramps have been released from the jail and are now in the county jail.

Special Correspondence from Near-by Towns

COYDON.
A birthday surprise party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Gurtz and Nellie Everett, Miss Elizabeth, Ida May and Florence Williams, Flora White, Mary Keeler, Viola Nevegold, and Sadie King; Messrs. William W. Ward, George R. Kelly, Messrs. Clement and William Allen, Charles Lorimer, Robert Neely, Jr., Samuel Duffin, Jacob Keeler and William Bault. The young folks had an exceedingly pleasant evening. Refreshments were served at 11:30, of which they all heartily partook. The jolly party left soon afterwards, wishing the twins many happy returns of the day.

Henry H. Jones, son-in-law of the late Mrs. John Sherwood, deceased, is making some expensive improvements to "Sharrowood" by planting a California Privet hedge, numbering about 5000, along his entire road front, and has also the old reliable carpenter, Robert B. Sanderson, erecting a new green house 40x100 feet. The same is to be heated by a Fuhrman boiler. The cost of this entire structure will be about $1200.
Edward Kelly, of Camden, N. J., a nephew of the well-known Philadelphia innkeeper, man, George R. Kelly, has been spending a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Sinclair.

Ralph Sweeting has resigned his position as night engineer at the water works, and has been succeeded by James Margorin.
The Morrisville team defeated the Clinton A. C. of Philadelphia, in a rattling good game last Saturday by the score of 4 to 4.
The Gazette is on sale at the news stand of William McGarry, next to the post office. McGarry keeps the best line of cigars and tobaccos.

A call has been issued for a public meeting to be held in Mereson's hall, of the citizens of Morrisville, to protest against the passage of an ordinance vacating certain of the borough streets, changing grades, etc.
Isaac Swangler, janitor of the William B. Case school, is the recipient of much praise for the manner in which he discharges his duty. Every day during vacation he aids every room in the building, a plan that might well be followed by other janitors.

PENN'S MANOR.
Mrs. H. Moll and daughter, Alice, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Appenzeller.
Some of our farmers in the Manor are hauling their wheat over to Trenton as soon as threshed and get a fair price.
The electrical storm which passed over here on Monday morning was quite severe for a while but as far as known no damage was done.
The recent heavy rains will help to make the corn fill out and keep the young grass and pasture growing, but it is rather annoying for the onion sets harvest.

The young people of the Manor tendered a surprise to Miss Annie Sweet in honor of her birthday on last Saturday evening. They all had an enjoyable time and departed at a late hour.
The annual Harvest Home will be held on the Manor lawn on next Saturday afternoon and evening. As usual an appetizing and plentiful supper will be served. Adults 30c, children 20c. Ice cream, confectionaries, etc., will be for sale. Painted speakers have been provided to make addresses. Everybody is invited and welcome to make it a success, as it is for the first time that our Harvest Home was ever held on that beautiful lawn. Proceeds for the benefit of the chapel.

EMILIE.
Frank Wright and family spent Sunday at Andalusia.
Miss Carrie Quinton, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. John LaRue.
Miss Dora Lovett has been taking in the sights at the Pan-American.
The home base ball team met and defeated Bloomsdale on Saturday.
Mrs. William Barton has returned home from an extended visit in Trenton.
Mrs. Frank Black and Mrs. Wink are spending a few days at Pitman Grove.
William Eitinger is marketing a fine crop of potatoes. Mr. Eitinger attributes a lot of his success to the use of Downward fertilizer sold by F. R. Wright.

If the action of your bowels is not easy and regular serious complications may be the final result. DeWitt's Little Early Bitters will remove this danger. Safe, pleasant and effective. J. Edward Wright, Central Pharmacy, 303 Mill street.
